

Position Announcement

Manager, Center for Human Services Leadership at Delmar DivINE
Available 1st Quarter, 2021

Delmar Divine is an innovative, multi-use project that provides co-location opportunities for nonprofit organizations and professionals alongside a range of shared support services for both tenants and the broader St. Louis community, as well as below market-rate housing to serve diverse, early career nonprofit professionals.

The Brown School Center for Human Service Leadership brings academically-anchored evidence-based knowledge and practice experience to improve the effectiveness, efficiency and impact of the St. Louis nonprofit community.

Working together, the Center for Human Services Leadership at Delmar DivINE offer a variety of services oriented toward enhancing the organizational, leadership and management capacities of its nonprofit tenants and their people (board, executives, employees and volunteers) in order to provide greater social impact.

The Manager and her/his student worker support team will work onsite following the opening (and remotely prior), to fulfill three core responsibilities:

- Animation: creating a vibrant, enriching, innovative, collaborative community that enhances the value of co-location to tenants and the larger community.
- Concierge-type Information & Referral Services: Serving as a source for education, information, referral and informal consultation to assist nonprofit tenants and members to be more effective and efficient in their work.
- Connect nonprofit tenants to other capacities and services of the Center for Human Service Leadership.

Qualifications:

Master of Social Work (or equivalent) with at least five years nonprofit managerial experience in the St. Louis community; strong inter-personal and communication skills; prior project or event management experience; and a deep commitment to Delmar DivINE's vision and values of social justice, racial equity, diversity and inclusion.

The position offers an opportunity for great social impact and professional growth within an innovative, dynamic, highly visible organization, as well as competitive salary and benefits.
